DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 3, 6-8, 10 and 12-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Davault (5,613,612). Davault '612 discloses a package with a pop-up display decoration comprising: a package (CD holder 12) having a side, a foldable panel overlying at least a portion of a side of a package, the foldable panel defining a first section and a second section of the foldable panel, the first section and the second section (first panel 22 and second panel 30) meeting at and joined to each other along a fold line, the first section and the second section folding along the fold line to face each other, and a pop-up display (3d foldable elements, see Figure 2 embodiment) formed of one or more sheets that are configured to fold into generally flat and compact configuration, the pop-up display affixed to the first section of the foldable panel at a first location on the pop-up display and the pop-up display affixed to the second section of the foldable panel at a second location on the pop-up display, the pop-up display folds to the generally flat and compact configuration to be at least partially enclosed between the first and second sections of the foldable panel when the foldable panel is folded along the fold line to form a dimensional display when the foldable panel is opened along the fold line to position the first and second sections extending from each other along the fold line. See Figures 1-4 embodiments.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

5. Claims 16 and 19-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Davault '612. Claims 16 and 19-20 are directed to the obvious method of decorating the package of Davault '612.

6. Claims 2, 4-5, 9 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Davault '612 in view of James (2,736,115).

With respect to claims 2, 9 and 11, note the band (strip 28) in Figure 2 embodiment that is configured to hold the foldable panel to the package. Band/strip (28) does not appear to extend from the panel around the package. James '115 discloses a package with a pop-up display decoration with a band that holds the panel to the package and extends from the panel around the package. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to make the band of Davault '612 extend around the package as taught by James'115 to better secure the pop-up to the package and hold the package in a closed position.

Art Unit: 3728

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 17-18 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-20 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

9. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
